

Smyers Slated to be Featured Panelist at 2011 Golf Inc. Conference- Innisbrook Resort

-This three day educational conference blends today's golf experts with tomorrow's leaders-

For Immediate Release

Lakeland, FL (December 29, 2011)

Steve Smyers Golf Course Architects announced today that Steve Smyers, CEO/Architect will be a featured panelist at the upcoming Golf Inc. Conference in March 2011 at Innisbrook Golf & Spa Resort. Mr. Smyers joins a distinguished list of speakers covering a broad spectrum of industry topics. The conference offers attendees education, networking opportunities with industry leaders, and proven ideas to implement into their business strategies.

Steve is a current member of The American Society of Golf Course Architects and former member of the ASGCA Board of Governors. He also serves the United States Golf Association as a member of the Executive Committee since 2006.

Visit www.golfinconference.com for event details and updates.

ABOUT STEVE SMYERS

Over the past twenty years, Steve Smyers Golf Course Architects have been delivering championship golf course designs around the world. The company's core values are rich in tradition, ethics, and passion for the game. With over 50 projects spanning the globe, Steve Smyers has built an impressive golf course design portfolio that includes many of the world's top courses. Steve Smyers Golf Course Architects provides clients not only an award winning golf course design, but offers the golfers an experience that is simply unmatched.

For more details, visit www.stevesmyers.com

ABOUT GOLF INC. CONFERENCES

Golf Inc. Conferences are a series of events focusing on the business of golf. Lead by keynote speakers, the conferences address many of the industries realities and explore new vision for the future of golf.

For more details, visit www.golfinconferences.com

MEDIA CONTACT

John Oney (john@stevesmyers.com)

Office: (863) 684-6100

###